MONEY BACK TO MEMBERS

The cost of weekly shopping trips has drastically increased over the past few years, with food prices increasing 5.8% in 2023, according to the Department of Agriculture. It can be tough to keep up with increasing costs in many areas of life, but your electric cooperative is focused on keeping prices low. GreyStone Power is dedicated to not only saving members money and providing great value, but also returning a portion of past years' margins to our loyal members.

This year, GreyStone is returning $12 million to members and former members. Capital credits are allocated to members who received electricity from GreyStone during specific years, based on their energy consumption. Checks are sent out each fall, typically around Oct. 1, and they reflect a portion of the margins from the most recent year and earlier year(s). Members who had service in 2004 or 2023 may be eligible to receive a capital credits check this year. Members should wait until after Nov. 1 before contacting GreyStone if they have not received their check.

Why does GreyStone do this? It's simple: As a not-for-profit cooperative owned by our members, we choose to return funds to those who use GreyStone Power, rather than distributing them to nonmember shareholders as a for-profit business would. Since 1936, GreyStone has returned $194.8 million in capital credits to our members.

At GreyStone, we prioritize offering the most competitive rates, while ensuring our members receive safe and reliable electricity. Georgia Power customers pay 49% more a month than our members based on the 2024 Summer Residential Rate Survey by the Georgia Public Service Commission (PSC) for the residential use of 1,500 kilowatt-hours per month.
